

The JFK Lie

The Pigcancer Triplets

Hello

Well, you may be wondering why this video is entitled, The Pigcancer Triplets, and what it has to do with JFK.

Well, I shall tell you.

As I have mentioned previously,
this country officially became a banana republic on 11/22/63 at 12:30 PM in the afternoon.

At that moment, the era
of unbridled greed began.

By all rights, we should have created a new calendar to commemorate the New World Order much like the Jacobins did when they created the French Republican Calendar.

Now, under that calendar, my
birthdate was 24 Brumaire CLXIII, which was fine because I was born after the French revolution.

I'm not sure how a date before 9/22/1792 would work.

That was never fully revealed.

Anyway, I digress. The real point of this video is to discuss
The Pigcancer Triplets.

The Pigcancer Triplets are Warren Buffet-All-For-Me, Jeff Bezoar-In-Our-Stomach and Jamie Your-Dimes-Are-Mine.

What you may ask do they have to do with JFK?

They have everything to do with JFK and his death.

Their unbridled greed and wealth is the result of JFK's death.

And it's not enough
for them.

Not content to own and control
hundreds of billions of dollars,
these financial cancer cells want more.

Like a cancer cell that
rages through the body,
they want it all.

They want your healthcare.

This new unholy triumvirate of evil desires to take over your health.

They will use all the tricks
they have learned since JFK's death to do it.

By cutting out the middle man, they will be able to cut costs.

Just as Jeff Bezoar-In-Our-Stomach cut out the bricks and mortar infrastructure that provided steady jobs in retail, construction, a/c, electrical, plumbing, groundskeeping, he and his Pigcancer Brothers will do the same for healthcare.

Now, at this point, let us take a brief intermission to diagram for you the Bezoar-In-Our-Stomach model and how it affects you.

What Jeff Bezoar-In-Our-Stomach has done is cut out the middle man, the guy between you and the distribution center.

His media puppets extoll the virtue of this. They say he is adding value to society.

They say he is freeing us
up to do more important things.

They point to livery stables and elevator operators.

Accordingly he should
be reimbursed.

How much should be
be reimbursed?

According to media clowns,
he should be reimbursed
whatever the market can bear.

In other words, the sky is the limit. And they mean sky.

Okay, that sounds fine.
You just brought your child
to me with abdominal pain.

I diagnosed him with appendicitis and sent him to a surgeon who removed his appendix.

I remember you telling me: Just get him better.

Here is our bill. Me: Five million dollars. Surgeon:
Ten million dollars.

This seems fair as media shills have pointed out that we should be able to charge whatever the market can bear.

Cough it up, Bub.

Oh, but that's not fair,
you scream.

And rightfully so.

We have placed controls
in society to prevent price gouging in healthcare.

But no controls exist in other parts of society, is that right?

Hmm.

Because we have placed no controls in other parts of society, we have allowed Jeff Bezoar-In-Our-Stomach
to tear-ass through society and gut it.

He has unfairly enriched himself beyond the value
that he adds.

Con-man-gress sits
by and does nothing.

Just as Con-man-gress sat by and
did nothing as Bill Hates-Us
accumulated undeserved riches in the computer business.

Just as Con-man-gress sat by and
did nothing as Palo Alto punks
accumulated undeserved riches in
the internet business.

Just as I would unfairly enrich myself by charging you five million to diagnose your child's appendicitis, Jeff Bezoar-In-Our-Stomach unfairly enriched himself in selling merchandise.

He has not only hurt us, he has accumulated vast riches which which he can use to game the system in order to do more harm.

Like the Rockefellers, he can set up think tanks to provide a steady stream of puppets who will rig government legislation to favor him.

He can buy newspapers
that can report the news
to favor his “good” deeds.

His Pigcancer Brothers, Warren and Jamie, will help him.

Haven't we had enough of that?

So, it's not a question of whether his company, Amagonnamakeyouazombie, adds value, but whether we will allow another Rockefellerian Caligula to gain so much power ever again.

This is the essential question.

Now let's return to healthcare and what the Pigcancer Triplets have in store for you.

Under their model, it will no longer be necessary for you to visit a doctor or a local hospital.

All those will go away.

You will get all your healthcare over the internet.

Should you need a doctor, a drone will fly out to pick you up to see a doctor at the one regional healthcare center in each state.

PS: The drone will fly out at their convenience.

Warren Buffet-All-For-Me's company, Bucksmore-Hath-I, will provide the infrastructure. All of it.

Jamie Your-Dimes-Are-Mine's Money Company
will provide the financing.

This will save you money.

It will also keep you perpetually sick and dependent upon them.

It will be in their financial interest to keep you a little sick
so that you will need them.

Don't kid yourself that they won't, Mr. Pollyanna;
nonsense like this went on in the prison industry.
Years back, a judge in Pennsylvania was slipped money to send kids to Juvenile Detention for the most minor of offenses.

In this manner the government can be billed.

The doctors under the old
model were schmucks.
They worked to get you well.

Under the new model,
medicines will be denied.

Services will be delayed.

Jamie: Just as my quants could read the entire market prior to you placing your trade so as to jack up the ask price, I can get my quants to deny your insulin. I'll create a false shortage so as to jack up the price. A few bucks over millions of scrips every day will hardly be noticed.

Warren: And if we get caught,
we'll just pay the usual small fine.
It's good business to look at malfeasance as an operating cost.

Bill Hates-Us:
Wow, we'll make a fortune on that.

All: Hey, get out of here, Bill. This is our caper.

Jeff: We'll get our college buddies to go along with the scheme. They'll be working for us anyway some day.

If we can keep you sick, say the Pigcancer Triplets, you will get more ill and thus in need of greater surgeries down the line.

We can get our payoff buddies in Con-man-gress to give us big bucks for that, says Warren.

That's right, adds Jeff. An ounce of prevention is a pound taken away from us.

The Pigcancer
Triplets giggle.

We're even wealthier,
screams Warren.

Jamie licks his chops.

Jeff laughs as he sings,
Democracy Dies With Me.

Ha ha ha.

They will employ the Star Trek Destroyer Nielsen Company to bogus up fake stats about how wonderful you perceive your healthcare.

Jamie: We can even tell the people how studies show that competition is harmful to their health.

Warren: I'll serve Blizzards and Dilly Bars to the hospital consumers.

Jeff: And
Amagonnamakeyouazombie Entertainment will be there in the hospital room.

Jamie: That should be an automatic tack-on charge
whether they want it or not.

All: Agreed.

Now, this is not bullshit.

This is exactly what your healthcare will be.

This is what the NWO really wants - total control of you.

You are a consumer,
not a patient.

You exist for them,
not they for you.

This is the difference between America pre-11/22/63 and America post-11/22/63.

JFK desired to preserve an America where the individual counted.

desire an America where the individual has no say.

And you won't if the Pigcancer Triplets have their way.

Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country.

The Pigcancer Triplets
ask what's in it for them.

How much money
can they make?

They don't ask what value they can add to you or the country.

They ask how much value they can cut out of the middleman, which is your local provider, to give to themselves.

The End

PS I propose the Pigcancer
Calendar to begin 11/22/63
at 12:30 PM in the afternoon.

We will all be given the same birthdate to symbolize our equality.

That birthdate will be 0 BBY

BBY will symbolize Buffet-All-
For-Me, Bezoar-In-Our-Stomach
and Your-Dimes-Are-Mine.

The End

Message to the Pigcancer Triplets: Get thee to Gettysburg and paint.

Thank you.

This slideshow is obviously a parody.
