

The JFK Lie

The Cult

Hello

In a previous video I spoke of the cult that grips the wealthy and elite.

What are we to do about the elite who oppress us?

We can't out-money them.

We can't outgun
them.

We can't even escape
them.

Is Van Dieman's Land
still available?

I don't think so.

What do we have going for us?

God.

These elites are horribly misguided, horribly lost, horribly corrupt.

In time, they will fail.

But what if we don't want to wait? What can we do?

As it so happens,
there is plenty we can do.

We can learn from the Christians who brought down the Roman Empire.

We can patiently articulate a message of truth.

And the truth is the following:

These wealthy and elite and the schools they attend do not represent the best and brightest.

It is the individual that counts, not the school or the family.

Awards, medals and certificates do not confer truth.

We must walk away from awards, medals, honorary doctorates, certificates, prestigious scholarships.

When Jesus renounced a crown, he renounced earthly awards conferred by man.

We must accept that what a person says and how he articulates his or her message carries greater weight than his school or family name.

We must walk away from all the Empire holds precious.

Prizes, awards, honorary doctorates, medals, booty that reaches to the sky.

Elitism is learned.

Elitism is fostered and nurtured by the Empire.

No man is born elite.

The concept of elitism is a self-fulfilling prophecy.

The elite thinks thusly:

I am elite. I went to a prestigious school. My family is elite. My family is rich. I am entitled to rule. I will rule. I will game the system to ensure my status as a living god.

Fifty houses around the globe is not enough.

I will indoctrinate the people under me to believe it. I will constantly talk about my elite alma mater and how it represents the best and brightest.

I will keep my loving people poor, on edge and needy of me.

I will regularly give myself awards to reinforce my superiority.

I will emphasize that I am an eighth cousin to the Queen of England. My media songstressess will sing it.

My media minstrels will ever so subtly mention that my ancestors sailed here on the Mayflower.

My engagements, weddings and social affairs will be published nationwide in the paper of record.

This is to be expected.

My musings, no matter how silly, will be given weight by editors and pundits I control.

I will place myself on the boards of innumerable corporations, foundations and associations.

My subjects will never think to ask whether there is the time of day to serve on all these boards to any substantive degree.

They won't ask because I will give them Disney and drugs.

I will rob their wealth through useless wars on drugs, crime, poverty, littering, illiteracy, invading mobs, imagined foreign enemies and whatever I can dream up.

I will dumb down education with political correctness.

I will replace intelligence with algorithms.

My adoring public will be kept poor, uneducated and fearful.

They will stand like Oliver Twist with trembling hands outstretched holding an empty pan.

They desire gruel.

They will look to me to solve their problems.

And I will never solve those problems.

Why would I want to do that?

Thus speaks the elite.

All of this must be walked back.

But it doesn't begin with getting together to promote policy change.

It begins with an attitudinal change within the individual to accept the supremacy of the individual, to see people as individuals stripped of their trappings of false power.

This is how Rome was defeated.

Renouncing wealth,
prestige and power
guttled Rome.

And rightly so.

Christianity accomplished what armies could not.

Thank you.

PS Because JFK was Irish in the midst of the English, because he was Catholic in the land of Protestant bigotry, because he knew what discrimination was, because he endured immense back pain, because he suffered through family tragedy when his brother died and his sister became impaired, because he spent time on that island with regular soldiers, he knew that elitism was nonsense. He walked amongst the elites, but he never joined them.

Warning to the Public: Reading my book will briefly remove you from your Disney addiction. This might cause an increase in heart rate, nausea, vomiting, sweats or weakness. Low blood sugars have been reported. Please keep a copy of Finding Dory nearby should you feel faint.

Thank you.
